

ICW Specialist #2019-64 (Shawnee) Provides services to the children and families of the Sac and Fox Nation; relative to their protection, health and welfare. Duties include performing intakes and assessments. Provides program information and referrals. Processes applications for possible Foster Parents. Maintains contract files. Gathers information to determine the needs of the child. Provides casework management updates. Assists families in becoming and remaining a functional family unit. Must have bachelor's degree in Social Work or Counseling preferred. An equivalent combination of work experience may be substituted. Experience with working within tribal governments and knowledge of the tribal customs and the structure of Indian families preferred. Knowledge and experience of ICWA. Experience as a caseworker and with Foster Care.