Princess Exhibit now on display at library: The exhibit currently on display at the library depicts the lives and activities of the current reigning Sac and Fox Nation Princesses. As you can see from the display, their schedules have been packed full. Be sure to stop by and see the display created by Sac and Fox Nation Historical Researcher, Catherine Walker.

Library Patrons Enjoy Christmas Open House

Nearly 100 patrons were on hand Dec. 15 for the annual open house at the Sac and Fox National Public Library. Lunch included lasagna, green beans and salad from D's Catering.

With recent additions, the library offers more than 1,000 DVDs for patrons to check out. The library has added some classic films to its DVD collection, including 2001, A Space Odyssey, The Graduate and The Maltese Falcon. If your taste runs toward comedy, we have Home Alone, Home Alone 2 and a collection of John Candy and the Marx Brothers films.

Recent additions also include two sets of Turner Classic Movies Great Classic Films Collection. One package offers song and dance such as The Gay Divorcee, Swing Time, Top Hat, and Shall We Dance while the other offers drama such as East of Eden, Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, A Streetcar Named Desire, and Rebel Without a Cause.

Our new Apollo system is up and running and you can now access our catalog from home to reserve books and DVDs at <https://sacandfox.bibliionix.com/atoz/catalog>. Drop by and apply for your new library card today.
