

Sac and Fox Tribal Member SFC Charles George Blessed Before Reporting To Duty

Sac and Fox Nation Tribal Member SFC Charles L. George, son of Berdina George, reported to his new duty station Eglin AFB, FL on December 8th, his wife and daughters are still in Ogden, KS; they will move to Florida later on.

Charlie was blessed before his move, as you can see by the picture, his first grandchild, Charlie Ray Whiteshield was born November 20th at 2:55 a.m. weighing 7 lbs. 14 oz. and was 20 inches long. His proud parents are Jamie Suneagle-George and Ray Eagleboey Whiteshield. Jamie is currently attending Kansas State University and Ray is at Haskell Indian Nations University. Charlie Ray is blessed as he still has his Great-Great Grandparents Lloyd and Betty George of Tulsa, OK, and his Great-Great Grandmother Velma Smith of Pawnee, OK. Should anyone wish to write Charlie and congratulate him his address is as follows: SFC Charles L. George, P. O. Box 1992, Eglin AFB, FL 32542

Thank you,
The Proud Mom and Great Grandma of "Charlie and Charlie"!
Berdina George

Playing Basketball

Since being crowned "Little Miss Sac and Fox" in June of 2011, Kilee Jones' schedule has been full. Kilee enjoys representing her Nation by participating in area and out of state events, parades, as well as playing basketball for her school. During this past summer she also volunteered at the Sac and Fox Nation Public Library. Kilee is eleven years old, and in the sixth grade at McLoud Elementary School. Her favorite hobbies include playing basketball, softball, dancing and attending tribal affiliations and ceremonies. She is one of the Ambassadors for the Sac and Fox Nation. Kilee is the daughter of Kira Gibson and the granddaughter of Catherine Walker.
