

SAUK LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT PHILOSOPHY

Indians are born speaking our languages. For some of us, they lie dormant within our bodies. They are looking for a way out. God gave us these beautiful languages. All of us hold them in a sacred manner within. There is no such thing as an Indian person who cannot speak Indian.

Our language programs find these languages within our bodies. They bring them out through our mouths and deliver them to their rightful resting places within our hearts.

Quotes of the Month:

"When our young people can no longer speak their language, then cultural genocide has taken place."

Darlene Pipe-Boy

"Some people think our language is dead, but it's not. We still have our language and we're bringing it back."

Jesse DesRosier, Blackfoot

"We're still here. We still speak our language. We still hear the drum. We still dance."

Melvin Francis, Passamaquoddy

"I think it's a beautiful language and I wished I would've learned it when I was young. Growing up I would hear people talk and stuff, but I never, never really learned the language itself."
