NICWA is looking for dynamic and powerful American Indian and Alaska Native artwork.

The deadline in our annual Call for Artists is September 28, 2012, which means that there is just over a month for Native artists to put their inspiration to work and send in a piece that they feel will best represent the spirit of "Protecting Our Children". Information is available online for NICWA's annual competition for American Indian and Alaska Native (AI/AN) artists. The winner gets $1,500 and the exposure of having their work incorporated into conference materials reaching thousands! To learn more visit the Call for Artists page of the NICWA website (www.nicwa.org) for information on what NICWA is looking for, past winners, and how to submit your work for consideration in this annual competition." portion of this email.

Agritourist Newsletter Leads to Adventure

When you're looking for something fun to do on a farm, ranch or vineyard, try a new resource that puts the information at your fingertips. The Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Food and Forestry's Agritourism Program publishes a monthly e-newsletter "The Agritourist" that puts you in the know when grape stomping, hay maze sleuthing or pumpkin patch discoveries are ripe for enjoyment.

Each monthly issue gives readers an inside peek at a farm, ranch or winery in the Agritourism Program where agriculture and tourism meet. Farms, ranches and vineyards across Oklahoma are opening their gates and barn doors to the public and issuing a heartfelt invitation to sample the abundant bounty and natural beauty found in rural communities.

Recipes from the farmhouse, coupons for special discounts and tips on where to travel and what to see are packed in each issue. To subscribe, simply enter an e-mail address on <http://www.travelok.com/Agritourism>.

Church of God Bible Study – September 15, 2012

The Church of God Bible Study will begin at the Sac and Fox Chapel on Saturday, September 15, 2012 at the Sac and Fox Chapel, beginning at 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

The first Bible study will be on God's Holy weekly Sabbath day that begins every Friday at Sunset and ends Saturday at Sunset. The Study will be conducted by Dora Young, long-time Sabbath Keeper, and will focus on why it is important to worship God the Father, according to the 4th Commandment. The Sabbath is the same time that Jesus Christ and His Apostles kept and worshipped our Father in Heaven.

On September 22, 2012 – The Study will be on "God's Master Plan of Salvation for Mankind".

On September 29, 2012 – The Study will be on "Is God Fair"?

On October 6, 2012 – The Study will be on "Drought".

If there is enough in attendance at some future time, arrangements will be made for a Church of God pastor to give the Worship Service.

All are welcome to attend and please bring your Bibles. It will be a round-table discussion and Scripture reading by all. Lunch will be served at 12 Noon to 1:00 p.m. in the Chapel dining room at each Study.

If there are any questions, please feel free to call Dora Young at 405-382-7941 and leave a message if I am away from home. In case of inclement weather, non-availability of the Chapel, a funeral, etc. the Study will be cancelled.

DORA S. YOUNG,
Deaconess in Training
Sac & Fox Nation, Roll # 1210

Thank You

The Salway family would like to express their heartfelt thanks to everyone for their prayers, kindness, thoughtfulness and the many generous gifts of money, food and clothing. There is such an enormous amount of people we don't want to leave anyone out. We are more grateful than you know.
