Marty Thurman and Family Performed at the National Junior Brahman Show

On July 23-28, the American Junior Brahman Association (AJBA) held the 33rd Annual "All American" National Junior Brahman show at the Heart of Oklahoma Expo Center in Shawnee, Oklahoma. More than 150 exhibitors from seven states brought Brahman bulls and females to compete in owned and bred and owned cattle divisions, as well as to participate in a variety of leadership contests. This event was hosted by the Oklahoma Junior Brahman Association, which is directed by Bob Rich, Jane Rich, and Calvin Heard. They did an exceptional job in making this event a success.

The first event of the show was a Welcome Supper hosted by the Oklahoma group. Marty Thurman and his family provided the "highlight" of the evening with a demonstration of their dancing skills. Marty explained the meaning and history of each dance and the crowd loved it.

George Thurman, Principal Chief of the Sac and Fox Nation, welcomed everyone. He thanked the association for coming to Oklahoma and for sponsoring such a great event for the youth.

The theme for the show was "Brahmans in Indian Country".
