Monica Yellow Bird
Re-Entry Program Manager

Keith Pike has a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies from Evergreen State College, Olympia, WA and a Graduate School degree in Community Psychology from Sonoma State University, Rohnert Park, CA.

He has over twenty years' planning and development work with Tribal Governments.

From September 2000 to the Present Pike was: Executive Management; Strategic Planning and Consulting tribes in California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, and Alaska. In 1984 to 1995, he served as Tribal Chairperson and Tribal Administrator for the Guidville Rancheria, Ukiah, CA.

My name is Monica Yellow Bird from Minneapolis, Minnesota. I am of the Lakota and Arikara nations, and enrolled at the Three Affiliated Tribes of North Dakota.

I have my Bachelors of Science in Business Administration with an emphasis in Business Management, and Accounting from Haskell Indian Nations University in 2012. I am currently finishing my graduate program at Baker University in the Masters of Business Administration with an emphasis in Finance.

I am also in the process of obtaining my Certified Public Accountant certification through the state of Minnesota. Once obtaining both the MBA and CPA I plan on attending a PhD program in Business Administration with a major in Management or Finance within the next 5 years.

I enjoy reading, sports, and I coach and train professional/amateur fighters in Boxing, Kickboxing, Tae Kwon Do and MMA.

To Wilson Harjo

Well, we laid to rest a great man yesterday. Honestly I didn't know him very well, but from all the people I seen yesterday he must have touched their life in some way. He was with my mother, Janice Meeks, and I'm a momma's boy so at first I was being the difficult son that I'm supposed to be when someone new dates your mother, but as time went by I saw how great he was for my mom. She was actually happy and that's all I wanted to see in my mom's heart is happiness. My niece and nephew were also around him and my niece just loved him. Made my heart hurt to see them hurt losing Wilson. When I saw my mom break down and cry yesterday, I'm not gonna lie, I shed a couple tears. Mom, Janice Meeks, he may not be here physically but he'll always be here spiritually. I'm always here for you. It's been you & me since day one. Wilson Harjo, I thank you for coming into my mother's life and being a blessing to my Mom and niece. Wish I had taken the time to get know you better, but I wish you safe journeys on the red road.

Ben Meeks
