

GEORGE THURMAN ANNOUNCING CANDIDACY FOR PRINCIPAL CHIEF

I am very humbled and proud of having served you during the growth and advancement of our Sac and Fox Nation over the past ten years. I have served with four different Business Committees, three separate administrations, and in two different positions, Secretary and Principal Chief. One of President Obama's campaign slogans was "Yes we can!" Our Sac and Fox Nation can say, "Yes WE have!!!" We accomplished the following: *Chapel*Veteran's Memorial*Improved roads and bridges *Improvements to our Capitol grounds including parking lots, buildings, water tower restoration, pavilions, playground equipment, RV Park, etc.*New ordinances and updated laws*New Rodeo Arena *Federal Charter approval*Learning Center*Merle Boyd Center*Gymnasium *Sauk Language Program *Gaming (3) Casinos resulting in (6) per-capita payments of a total: $9,145.77 per individual (those who received all 6 payments) / 6 years total - $32,720,242.25*New telephone system*Improvements to tribal cemeteries*Land acquisition*Constitutional amendments*Economic Development entities created, Sauk Business Enterprises and Sac and Fox Tribe, Inc.*Tobacco and Gaming Compacts entered into with State of Oklahoma*Tribal membership (enrollment) increased by 1,300 members plus*Net Income increase by Investments: $9,994,315 / Revenue: $9,945,012 / Assets: $13,613,153*Police Department increase in number of officers and equipment including near completion of gun range*Development of Information Technology (IT) Department allowing so much advancement in technology for our tribal government.*Veteran's Honor Guard and Women's Auxiliary*Revenue Allocation Plan Department (RAP) to administer services provided from our Gaming money*Planning of our PL 102-477 Program that will provide more and better services*Distance Learning capabilities with MOUs entered into with Southwestern Oklahoma State University (SWOSU) in Weatherford and Pawnee Nation College (PNC) in Pawnee *Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Community Development Indian Block Grants (CDIBG), grants resulting in Merle Boyd Center, Gymnasium, Learning Center, Lagoons, USDA Food Distribution Center (store) located in Shawnee, future Cultural Center *Progeny enrollment software implemented*Indian Child Welfare (ICW) Title IV Planning Grant for 24 months for $299,000*Increased tax revenue:$2,935,213.11*New automobile tag registration system. I am very pleased but not satisfied with the growth and advancement of our Sac and Fox Nation during the past ten years; I am equally excited about the vision for our future, a vision to keep our Nation moving forward as I vowed when elected four years ago. I graciously ask for your continued prayers as I remind you that we must have faith in our Creator; acknowledge His mercy; pray for forgiveness by grace daily; and thank God for the divine guidance provided to our Sac and Fox Nation during the next four years of our history. I state once again that it is an honor and privilege to serve you as your Principal Chief!
