Tecumseh Cline Recipient Of Multiple Awards

Tecumseh Cline was born October 6th, 1998 in Chandler, Arizona. He is a proud member of the Sac and Fox Tribe. He is the son of Rick Cline and Jacqueline J. Holder. Tecumseh is a 6th grader at ASTEC Charter

Middle School. He has made the honor roll every semester since Kindergarten and has won several Johnson O'Malley awards for Art, Citizenship, and Educational Achievement.

He is very active in OKC Public School Indian Education Program as a member of the Championship Handgame Team, pow wow drum, and singing group.

He attends Crestwood Baptist Church and his hobbies include collecting Yu-Gi-Oh cards, Beyblades, and watching wrestling.

He has played soccer, baseball, football, and plans to play 7th grade basketball.

Tecumseh's future educational goals include a degree in game design and computer programming from Arizona State University.

His family is so very proud of him and wish him continued success and would also like to express their gratitude to the Sac and Fox Tribe for their assistance.

NOTICE

LIBRARY MISSING BOOKS, DVDS

Our most recent count at the Sac and Fox National Public Library shows more than 120 DVDs, VHS tapes and books are missing. Please check around your house to see if you have misplaced any of these items. If you are not sure that you have any of these, please check with Marlena Starr at extension 1062, and she can check our files.

Thank You

*Dear Friends, Blessings,
Tribal Sisters and Brothers, it is an Honor to receive your blessing. Your sharing gives us the opportunity to strengthen our community, Aho! We are grateful for your Sacred Gifts and support in helping us to continue our spiritual walk. It is good to know that through our trials and tough times we experience on our path, that you are there for us helping us to conserve our cultural ways. We wish to say thank you for your contribution, it means the world to us. Again, from all our hearts at the Sweat Lodge Community, thank you, AHO!*

Sincerely, Lavaughn McDaniel
